No. DHE/NEP-2020/2022/59

Dated Kahilipara the 25th July, 2023

NOTICE

In regard to rising demand for admissions from students and colleges, the special drive for UG admissions will be started from tomorrow i.e. 26-07-2023 to fill the seats in Colleges/Universities who still have vacancies for UG programmes. Accordingly, this is to notify the following guidelines in regard to UG admissions through special drive.

1. Admission process initiated during Spot admissions, may be processed within 27-07-2023 midnight.
2. Admissions may be done/continued by Colleges/Universities offering UG programmes to fill up their vacancies. However, such seats may be filled up only by fresh applications from applicants who are not yet admitted in any Institution. Those admissions will not have options for cancellation thereafter.
3. The already registered applicant who has not yet secured admission in any programme in any institution need not register again but fill a fresh application generating a form number, provided they have not exhausted 10 options. In case, the applicant has exhausted all 10 options then he/she may choose to edit any one of the already submitted applications from his/her portal.
4. Applicants who have not yet registered in the portal may register afresh and apply. However, applicants should refrain from using multiple credentials to create multiple registration numbers. As and when such cases will be detected by the system, the second registration will be deemed as invalid and the application done through the first registration will be considered.
5. No cancellation of admission will be allowed for already admitted students from tomorrow (26-07-2023) onwards.
6. Colleges whose seats are filled in all departments need not entertain any admission from tomorrow. However, if any seat in any department is yet to be filled they may proceed accordingly.
