Sanitary Napkin Distribution and Awareness Programme on Menstrual Health and Hygiene

Brochure of the Programme

Programme Co-ordinator: Banasri Saikia

Programme Name: Sanitary Napkin Distribution & Awareness Programme on Menstrual

Health and Hygiene

Date of the Programme: 12/11/2024

Venue: Deodhabhita Village, Dhanubhanga, Goalpara

Objectives of the Programme:

- i. To create awareness among the women of the Deodhabhita Village of menstrual health and hygiene.
- ii. To make them aware of the importance and uses of Sanitary Napkin.
- iii. To give them some simple menstrual hygiene management tips, such as safe disposal of menstrual products, and how to maintain personal hygiene during periods, etc.
- iv. To distribute sanitary napkins among the women of Deodhabhita Village.

Particulars of the Programme:

As a part of the Cell's extension programme, Women's Cell Bikali College distributed sanitary Napkins and conducted a mental health and hygiene awareness programme in Deodhabhita Village, which is a part of our adopted village. Mayjan Nssa,, CHD, Dhanubhanga AAM, Prabhabala Das, ANM Dhanubhanga, AAM and Noirusha Rabha, Ashakarmi were the resource persons of the programme. In the programme, the resource persons emphasized the importance of understanding the menstrual cycle, how to choose and use menstrual products, and the importance of practising good hygiene during menstruation. They also addressed the various menstrual stigmas and taboos, and the importance of creating an environment where everybody can discuss menstruation issues openly. Resource persons also addressed how poor menstrual hygiene can lead to bacterial and fungal infections and long-term health complications. The pgogramme was successfully ended with the distribution of Sanitary Napkins among the women of the Deodhabhita Village by the members of the Women's Cell Bikali College.
